LOCAL MENTION.

The county board convened Tuesday.

A. D. Brown of Arnold, was visiting in the city Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

Mrs. G. E. Russell and daughter of Anselmo, were here on business the first of this week.

Mr. J. A. Farrell was a west bound passenger Wednesday morning.

H. Brown of Oconto, was a city visitor Monday. The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a business call.

Dan Keelin is having his store building, that had the roof burned off recently repaired by putting on a new roof.

The Rebekah lodge will meet at the I. O. O. F. hall at 2 p. m. and march to the Christian church next Sunday. All members are requested to be present.

Lewis Kimberling and wife of Arnold, came over Monday to the city remaining over until Wednesday looking after business and visiting with the family of ye scribe.

S. L. Cannon has commenced the erection of a new dwelling house, on Fourth avenue, north of the railroad track. His brother W. L. Cannon and son are doing the work.

Miss Stella Woodburn, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades in the south school, visited with friends at Merna last Friday and on Sunday left for Furnas county to pass the vacation season with her father.

N. C. George of Cumro, deputy assessor of Loup township, was a city visitor Tuesday. He informs us that the property valuation of his township has increased considerably within the past year, but as the footings are not yet complete, the exact amount of increase has not been ascertained.

The Oddfellows annual memorial sermon will be preached Sunday at 11 a. m. at the Christian church by Rev. Harmon. All visiting brothers are especially invited, also the Rebekahs and members of the Camp. All Oddfellows meet at the I. O. O. F. Hall at 10:30 p. m. A general invitation is extended to the public.

Reneau & Leonard's real estate and abstract office is now in the hands of the paper hangers, and the improvements which have been going on there for the past three or four weeks will be completed sometime during the week. Beyond doubt their office is now one of the most modern in this section and is palatial in appearance and inviting in a business way. The cost of the improvements has been heavy, but the best is none too good for this enterprising firm.

Jas. Henry of Elim township, was a city visitor Tuesday.

Leonard Tooley was a passenger for Omaha, last Thursday.

Mrs. J. R. Dean and children left Tuesday for a visit at Grand Island and Fremont.

Mrs. L. H. Jewett and Miss Hazel were passengers to Chicago Wednesday of this week.

Sarah Hilderbrandt of Seward Nebr., was here on business the first of the week returning home Wednesday.

Joseph Beckwith went to Kearney yesterday morning where he will have the strength of his cement blocks tested.

The trains were delayed Tuesday and Wednesday on account of washouts on the road in the east and also the west.

Fredrick Ebert is having a new frame house built on Division street north of the railroad. Geo. Papineau has the contract.

J. C. Predmore of Walworth, is spending the week in the city taking medical treatment from Drs. Bartholemew & Christensen.

Mrs. Vanscoyk who has been visiting in the eastern part of the state and also here, returned to her home at Halsey, Neb., Tuesday.

Mrs. P. J. Richardson and children were passengers to Anselmo Wednesday morning. She expects to visit at the home of H. Andrews of that place.

F. H. Young went to Lincoln Saturday, to attend the funeral of Ex. Gov. Robert Furnace, which was conducted last Sunday by the Masonic fraternity.

Mr. Herbert Watts was a passenger for Beatrice Tuesday morning. He expects to make that place his home, where he will have charge of a first class music store.

Mrs. M. McCook who has made her home here since last August in order to send her three children to school, returned to her home on a ranch near Seneca, last Tuesday.

Mrs. L. Bortfield and Mrs. H. C. Spencer of Kansas City, Missouri, arrived here Wednesday morning. They expect to visit at the home of Joe Hemstead about 6 1/2 miles east of this city.

W. B. Paine of Lee Park, who has been here visiting his sister, Mrs. F. R. Huxtable, left for Seattle, Wash., last Monday. He expects to go from there to Portland, Oregon to spend the summer. His farm of 400 acres at Lee Park has been rented.

Joseph Beckwith has sold his farm north of Round Valley, to J. E. Adamson. Mr. Adamson put two teams to breaking on it Monday morning and will put in cultivation all of it that is tillable. Mr. Beckwith will give his time exclusively to his cement block business.

A. T. Wood of West Union, called Saturday and had his name enrolled for the REPUBLICAN. Mr. Wood was one of the pioneer settlers in the extreme north-east part of the county, who after a few years residence went back to Jasper County, Iowa. Some time ago he returned here and bought the Dave Finch farm in Antelope Valley and feels satisfied to stay.

S. C. Waldron of Over, was a city visitor Tuesday. He informs us that he recently shipped his cattle that he has had on feed for several months. He fed one hundred head, which with the hogs he sold brought him about seven thousand dollars. As Mr. Waldron had grown the most of the cattle himself the only cash outlay was for his hired help and corn he had to buy. He got $5.70 per hundred for his cattle.

We note from the Gandy Pioneer that the Teachers County Institute of Logan county is now in session, it having commenced last Monday week. The Pioneer gives the list of teachers in attendance. Of the twenty-four enrolled thirteen of them are from Arhold, Custer county, viz: Myrtle Magnuson, Ina Holliday, Bertha Lathorpe, Nellie Ransier, Myrtle Reed, Marie Sauters, Sevena Reed, Maude Marion, Clarinda Alexander, Gertrude Allen, Harriett McCan, Lillian Blowers, Fannie Bybee.

Cultivators.

I have one of the largest stocks of cultivators ever brought to Custer county, bought particularly for this county, such as the One-Row Badger Cultivator, Two-Row Badger Cultivator, Two-Row Decupster Cultivator, One-Row Bully Boy Cultivator, One-Row Boss Cultivator, and One-Row Disc Lister Cultivator, also the Magic One-Row Lister Cultivator, the latest thing out. Anyone who has a small boy or girl who would like to assist in plowing the corn cannot afford to be without a Magic Cultivator. Buying cultivators as I do by the car-load direct of the factory I can make you a price that cannot be duplicated in Custer county.
